When the wind blows cold: the spirituality of suffering and depression in the life and ministry of Charles Spurgeon