

education policy, policy agenda, implementation, legislatures, government, Interest groups, Brookings Institution, state level, state government, The Phi Delta Kappan, policy issues, Milton Friedman, sixteen states, National Governors' Association, policy influence, education leaders, state legislatures, Appropriations Committee, policy process, Government Actors The Legislative Branch, State Departments of Education Marshal, Executive Branch Marshal, Marshal, state school, Public agenda, Professional agenda, paying attention, media attention, government agenda, School choice, official policy, education policy networks, education issues, Superintendents Cooper, majority vote, SCHOOL LEADERS, Legislative Proposals, POLICY FORMULATION, state board of education, Senate, Integrative Research, research community, applied research, University of Pennsylvania, Manhattan Institute University, Consortium for Policy Research, Diane Ravitch, educational policy research, Stanford University, Annie Casey Foundation, Rockefeller Foundation, Basic Research, Cognitive theory, issue definition, National Standards, Harvard University, Ford Foundation, American Enterprise Institute, Learning theory, USDOE A Universities Foundations, Reference Committee, Conference Committee, American Education, standing committee, Fiscal Review Committee Action Second Reading Engrossment, Policy Research Organizations, Budget committees, Standing Policy Committee, Evaluation Research, curriculum, University of Michigan, Carnegie Corporation, policy researchers, National Institute of Education, Committee for Economic Development - Heritage Foundation, Dewitt Wallace, Education Associations, Floor consideration

Policy studies for educational leaders: An introduction