Peter Donahue, Julia James, Laura Cleghorn, Lynn McDonald, University of Toronto, Social Inclusion, Health, Housing, Older Adults, service providers, Toronto, supports, health care, Understanding, qualitative interviews, Cities Centre, focus groups, Calgary, homeless population, discrimination, support, models, participation, employment, social housing, mental health, homeless persons, focus group, population, homeless adults, relationship building, supported housing, homeless community, health cards, Social Inclusion of Formerly Homeless Older Adults, diversity, flexible models, qualitative data, community building models, affordable housing, housing stock, health challenges, mobility issues, cluster housing, health care facilities, research participants, tenants, supportive housing

Understanding the health, housing, and social inclusion of formerly homeless older adults.